Being an Independent Provider of Percussion

Tuition means that you can have a bespoke service in your school. Whether it be a short course for a GCSE student with no practical skills, an A level student wanting to further their studies in a music college, an absolute beginner or a student who just wants to have fun with their percussion playing, all can be comfortably accommodated. You will have over 30,000 hours of teaching experience at your disposal. The full service offers: Tuition, e-mail support for students and their parents, attendance at your school parents evening (subject to availability) and an annual written report.
